TERMS & CONDITIONS OF GALLERY AND EXHIBITIONS

1. Contract - If selected, the Exhibitor(s) will meet with representatives of WA+C at least 6 weeks prior to the scheduled exhibition date. At this time, images of all artworks must be presented along with an updated image list including title, medium, size and price of all works. Each Exhibitor will be required to read and sign a formal Exhibition Contract that will break down, set up/tear down dates and times, reception dates, and all other exhibition related processes.

2. Materials & Preparation - During the meeting the representatives of WA+C and the Exhibitor(s) will thoroughly address the visual component of the exhibition. A detailed floor plan will be created for maximum efficiency on installation day.

3. Insurance - WA+C provides insurance to the artwork while located on our premises and noted in contract. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to disclose the value of each artwork to be on exhibit to the staff at the WA+C, regardless if the artwork is for sale or not.

4. Security - The Exhibitor acknowledges that there is no formal security on premise and That WA+C is not responsible for any works that may be damaged or stolen during the Exhibition. WA+C takes care in the safety and presentation of each exhibit and necessary steps are taken to decrease opportunities for damage and theft.

5. Commission & Sales Transactions - WA+C will accept and process all payments for the sale of artworks on behalf of the Exhibitor and designate them as sold. WA+C will accept payments in the form of cash, Interact, MASTERCARD or VISA. A 30% commission is calculated based on the posted price of the artwork; the exhibitor will receive a payment of total sales minus 30%.

6. Approve or Deny - Due to the sensitivities that must be considered in a public multi-purpose environment, WA+C reserves the right to refuse the display of any works that contain obscenity, brutality, in some cases nudity, or works that may be deemed offensive in nature. WA+C also reserves the right to remove any work that imposes a health and safety risk to patrons.
