 Once received at a depot, artwork in the care, custody or control of Winkler Arts & Culture is insured for loss arising from negligence by the Winkler Arts & Culture. Artists should arrange for appropriate insurance against losses not covered by the organizers.

Entry Guidelines:

- All work must be an original concept (no copyrighted material, no copies, kits or patterns) and completed since November 2020. Eligible work includes visual arts, photography, fiber arts, woodcarving, pottery, stained glass, etc.
- Please email a brief Artist's Statement (75 words or less) to admin@winklerarts.com. Longer statements may be edited by the committee. An Exhibit Program, including artists' statements and a listing of the artwork, will be prepared based on information received by MARCH 1, 2022. Late entries may not be included in the program.
- Work must be packaged suitably for transport by car (packaging should be maximum 2" larger than the artwork). Artwork dropped off at a depot may not be larger than 24" x 30". Larger pieces must be delivered directly to a Winkler Arts & Culture (547 Park Street, Winkler) on APRIL 25, 2022 between 10am and Noon. Organizers are not liable for breakage or damage due to inadequate packing. Please see the Call for Entry for specific packing requirements. Instructions are also available from your respective arts council.
